Calling all budding filmmakers and passionate readers. You are invited to enter the inaugural Magdalene Catholic High School Short Film Competition.

The message behind your film MUST be ‘Reading Matters’. You are free to interpret this message in your own unique way. However, the message MUST be clearly communicated to your audience.

During Literacy and Numeracy Week there will be a screening of all short-listed films and the prize winners will be determined by a student vote.

ENTRY GUIDELINES:
- The competition is open to students in Years 7-11.
- Films should be no longer than 5 minutes, including titles and end credits.
- Films must be suitable for children. This means that the content must be mild (i.e. no violence, sexual references or coarse language).
- Entries MUST promote the idea that ‘Reading Matters’.
- Be creative –only original ideas will be accepted. You will be judged on your originality and how well you convey the message that ‘Reading Matters’.
- All short-listed films will be screened during Literacy and Numeracy Week (25-31 August 2014).
- All short-listed films will also be published on the Magdalene CHS website.

SUBMITTING YOUR ENTRY:
- Please notify Miss Maher ASAP if you intend to submit an entry. You can do this by emailing her on: linda.maher@dow.catholic.edu.au
- All entries must be emailed directly to: linda.maher@dow.catholic.edu.au or given directly to Miss Maher or Mr Elliott on a USB.
- All entries must be received by Friday 22nd August 2014. Under NO circumstances will entries be received after this date.
